DEDICATION

Mrs. Mabel B. Fiske-in recognition of your thirty years of service as English instructor at Charlton High School-we, the Seniors of 1960, take special pride in dedicating our Yearbook to you. Throughout your years at Charlton High, your name has been associated with Dramatic Club and Senior Class plays, Class Day and graduation speeches, and with other projects just too numerous to list. As our advisor for the past four years, you have been exceedingly generous with your time and your talent. We will always remember your kindness and your consideration for everyone. As a teacher you have made a lasting impression upon each of us. May God bless you!

In Memoriam

The class of 1960 wishes to pay reverent tribute to Rodney N. Fiske, who for many years served the town of Charlton. As a true public servant, his life was centered around the work of the school, the church, and the community. The little time he allowed himself for recreation was spent working in his garden and at his vegetable stand. Service, Sincerity, and Sociability-these were his attributes.

SENIOR YEAR - Hazel Jenkins

Fred Dickinson, and Wilfred Savoie.

Sandra Stone; Secretary, Elaine Davis; and Treasurer, Albert Thibaudeau.

On October 16, we held our Senior Hop, which surely proved to be a social and financial success. After that, we held our Senior Paper Drive. Directed by our principal, Mr. Ewing, we were very successful, with a profit, $280., which was an all-time high. We had many never-to-be forgotten laughs during our efforts.

We were, of course, proud and happy to realize a profit of approximately $1,060.

4. The class of 1950, being at Bowling Green, Ohio, and during the summer, 1950, at the University of California, Berkeley, California, and last winter and spring, 1951, be administered as follows:

- I, Vincent Brown, leave my books to the State Library.
I, Edgar Barnes, leave, still full of hot air.
I, Renny Berg, leave my way with the women to Keith Knowlton.
I, Elizabeth Blais, leave my athletic ability to Pat Miller.
I, Frank B. Baker, leave my state of mind with the state of mind.
I, Sylvia Burns, leave my eyelash curler to Marilyn Johnson.
I, Mary Casey, leave history class for good.
I, Elaine Clark, leave my soft-spoken manner to Marie St. Martin.
I, Mildred Clark, leave my driver's license to Sears & Roebuck.
I, Tommy Cooper, leave 'cause everyone else is.
I, Elaine Davis, leave good ole' Hercules to Mr. Burns.
I, Jacklyn Davis, leave today to become Mrs. Bobby Lowell tomorrow.
I, Sally Davis, leave my excess poundage to Evelyn Rollins.
I, Maureen Drake, leave my car payments to Howard Johnson's.
I, William E. Dwyer, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Robert E. Evans, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Robert E. Evans, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Robert E. Evans, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Robert E. Evans, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Roland Lataille, leave Sylvia, darn it!
I, John L. Latta, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Peter L. Latta, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Dotty A. Kinnel, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Joanne Miller, leave still studying.
I, Ruth Miller, leave my infectious giggle to Marilyn Whitcomb.
I, Elsie Phillips, leave my genuine blonde hair to Beverly Stone.
I, Jean Rogers, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Elaine S. S. S., leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Ronald Roix, leave as usual - without any textbooks.
I, Leah Roy, leave, proving "Silence is Golden."
I, Harold Russell, leave all my clothes to Robert Hall.
I, Ernest Sahlin, leave my hot-rod books to future Lakers.
I, Martin Sleeper, leave my gift of gab to a tongue-tied Freshman.
I, Carlton S. S. S., leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Warren Snow, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Grace Stockman, leave my quiet reserved ways to Bernard the Printer.
I, Carl Stone, leave my part time work to whoever can stand the long hours.
I, Sandra Stone, leave my bubbling personality to Barbara Jones.
I, Albert Taitelbaum, leave my ability to sleep in class to anyone who has insomnia.
I, Katherine Telen, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Cindy Telen, leave my intrusive ways to Katherine Casper.
I, Donald Vaanden, leave my sense of humor to the State Library.
I, Marcia Vesey, leave my snariness to anyone who would like to be snarier.
I, Bill Walker, leave my English book to someone who will get more use out of it than I did.
I, David Williams, leave nothing! I'm taking it all with me!

Class Song

Tune: Among My Souvenirs

By: Sally Davis, Elsie Phillips and Sandra Stone

It's Graduation Day,
We leave to start anew.
As Seniors we must say
So long to all of you.

And now we leave the key,
symbol of success,
To Juniors one and all,
For joy and happiness.

Our thanks to Mrs. Fiske,
For all the work she's done,
Forever in our hearts
We'll hold her love and devotion.

We're at our journey's end
We'd like to stay but then,
The time is drawing nigh
When we must say good-bye.

COMMENCEMENT

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of a successful four years, but also a beginning of graduation life. Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.
